

Grading Practices

School: Kellam High School

Subject(s): AP US History

Grade Level: Social Studies

Homework

Homework will be assigned and will count 10% of the final nine weeks grade.

Late Work

The makeup policy addresses latework concerns.

Explanation of Zeroes

Zeros (we grade on a total points basis so it isn't a zero out of a 100% scale) will be given on assessments that have not been completed by the period test cut-off date.

Reassessment

students may be given the opportunity to reassess provided that the student has participated in class, completed assignments, and demonstrated evidence of best effort on the assessment and the learning leading up to the assessment

Make-up Work

Make up work due to excused absences will be accepted and assessed for full credit if turned in prior to the Unit test for the unit that the work has been assigned for. If the assignments for the unit are not completed by the day and block of the unit test it will be assessed as a zero. Work not completed due to unexcused absences will not be assessed for credit.

Extra Credit

There will be no opportunities for extra credit given
