

Grading Practices

School: Kellam High School

Subject(s): Health/PE I

Grade Level: Health/PE

Homework

Homework is not graded. It may be assigned throughout the year to reinforce specific class content and completion will aid mastery of the topic

Late Work

Students have the opportunity to turn in all work throughout the nine week period. The student will have a 5% grade deduction for each week the assignment is not turned in to teacher.

Explanation of Zeroes

A zero will be given to students who don't meet the guidelines/criteria of make-up work and/or late work.

Reassessment

Teachers will provide opportunity for all students to be reassessed throughout the nine weeks for more successful Health and PE grades/ fitness scores.

Make-up Work

Preassigned assignments will still be due on the due date regardless of absence, if work can be turned in digitally. If an assignment is not digital, it is expected the day the student returns to class. Make up work must be completed within a week of the assigned due date, otherwise it will be classified as late work. Make-up work for extenuating circumstances will be determined by the instructor.

Extra Credit

Extra Credit will not be offered.
