

Grading Practices

School: Kellam High School

Subject(s): Economics

Grade Level: Social Studies

Homework

Homework will not be assigned. Any work not completed in class may be completed outside of the class period but there will be no assignments that are originally assigned as homework.

Late Work

Late work will always be accepted for all students. There will be a maximum of 20% reduction of points for any late work

Explanation of Zeroes

Zeroes will be assigned for no credit. Students will receive a grade of MI for assignments not turned in. Missing assignments(MI) can be replaced with a maximum of a 20% reduction. All excused missed assignments will be marked as EX and not be graded.

Reassessment

All students scoring under 70% will be given the opportunity to reassess provided all assignments and tasks for relevant material have been completed. The reassessment grade will average with the original grade.

Make-up Work

Make-up work will always be accepted for all students. There will not be a reduction of points for any make-up work finished one week prior to the end of the grading period. No make-up work will be accepted after the deadline.

Extra Credit

Extra credit will be accessible to all students and will be associated with content objectives.
