

Grading Practices

School: Kellam High School

Subject(s): Psychology I

Grade Level: Social Studies

Homework

Homework will not be assigned. Any work not completed in class may be completed outside of the class period but there will be no assignments that are originally assigned as homework.

Late Work

Accepted with a teacher imposed deadline

Explanation of Zeroes

Zeros are a placeholder until make-up work is submitted

Reassessment

All students scoring under 70% will be given the opportunity to reassess provided all assignments and tasks for relevant material have been completed. The reassessment grade will average with the original grade.

Make-up Work

Make-up work will always be accepted for all students. There will not be a reduction of points for any make-up work finished one week prior to the end of the grading period. No make-up work will be accepted after the deadline.

Extra Credit

Extra credit will be accessible to all students and will be associated with content objectives.
